A New Smash Burger Specialist and Ten More Openings

River North: The dining room and bar at Fame Supper Club, a Prohibition-inspired restaurant and nightclub, opened this week; the second-floor club and event space will be coming later this fall. Chef Mark Sparacino will be bringing over fresh pasta from Prosecco (where he's still chef/owner), but the menu will also feature stuffed medjool dates under smoked glass and pina colada baked Alaska flambeed tableside. There will be live music, and unlike 100 years ago, booze will be consumed openly and legally. Fame Supper Club, 157 W. Ontario Street
