

6 New Restaurants in River North to Try

Sep 21, 2021 by Xiao Faria daCunha

With the city opening back up and people becoming more positive of our future, Chicago's dining scene has also been pumping and going! Among all the Happy Hours and reopenings, there are actually a few new restaurants in River North we want to point you toward this time! May it be ethnic cuisine or a pampering date with your girlfriend, or even just a quick work lunch, we hope one of these places will become your new favorite!

Fame

157 W Ontario St, Chicago, IL 60654

Fame Supper Club will offer modern American fare, classic cocktails, and live music, and will have a soft opening with limited reservations. It is ready to woo you with the dramatic and intimated interior created with dark lacquer floors, textured wallpaper, and plush seating. Meanwhile, a long, contemporary bar featuring gold panels and stone white top occupies the east side of the space, while the remainder of the room is reserved for dining.